Allergen Alert (Reg. 1169/11)

Within the preparations administered in this exercise may be present one or more allergen ingredients, better specified in the "allergen table" available to customers.

The raw fish administered is subjected to treatment of remediation prior to compliance with requirements of Regulation (EC) 853/2004, Annex III, Section VII, Chapter 3, point D, point 3.

In order to provide consumers with better information, it is available to our customers the menu with the quality and conservation requirements of the raw materials used.

CHIOSTRO DEI DOMENICANI
DIMORA STORICA

GIMMI RESTAURANT.

An eclectic tangle.

Distant sounds, foreign languages entangling in warm traditions knotted by the wind.

A thread warmed up by the sun, braided by centuries-old mixes.

Unravel the knot ('Matassa') through three tasting menu:
